at his own cost, and after his death, by his son-in-law Venkatasubbiah, Sranbhogue of Mavathur. He further made a statement before the Amildar to this effect, and stated that he intended gifting some lands in due course to give permanency to his revarthas and that if the Palace desired to undertake feeding on any day during the Girija Kalyana he would have no objection. The Amildar reports that the amount allotted by Govt (viz400) for the Girja Kalyana is insufficient and recommends that the petitioner's prayer may be complied with. The Deputy Commissioner for reasons stated upholds the Amildar's recommendation.

The Tasdik allotment for Girja Kalyana is Rs. 400/- per annum. From the Amildar's report to the senior Assistant Commissioner, Nanjangud Division, it appears that during the Girja Kalyana of this year Rs. 500 contributed by thepresent petitioner Sreecantiah, Rs. 100 by Singri Nanjappa and but the Temple authorities and the Archaka should supervise the Santarpanas and the cooks &c of the Temple should perform their duties in connection therewith may also be sanctioned.

It has however to be noted that one -- Singri Nanjappa of Tipur has already given lands the value of Rs, 1000/- with the view of their income being utilized towards the santarpanas to be performed during the sums festival viz Girja Kalyana. The produce of these lands is reported to Kalyana of this -- year, besides a further money-contribution of Rs. 100 made on the occasion by the donor. It is therefore necessary to allow one day's santarpana(out of the 3 days) to be celebrated by Singri Nanjappa.

It has further to be provided that in case H.H.the Maharaja or any other member of the Royal family of Mysore wish to perform the santarpana on any of the days allowed to him, the petitioner should not raise any objection.

To meet the expenditure connected with the Girja Kalyana festival at Nanjangud, a sum of Rs400/- per annum is allotted by Government. The amount is mostly spent for the necessary religious ceremonies and the cost of feeding the people is largely met from private endowments and donations. One Singri Nanjappa has endowed certain lands for the purpose.

During the Santarpane on the last occasion, one day's feeding was undertaken by Singri Nanjappa, and the expenses of the remaining 5 days' Santarpane were met from what remained of the Government contribution of Rs400 and a donation of Rs500 paid by one Srikantia of Mavatur and other small contributions from devotees.

Srikantia above referred to, prays that he may be permitted to conduct, at his own expense, all the six days' Santarpane and expresses his willingness to endow lands for securing the permanancy of this charity.

The note by the Muzrai Secretary shows that the greater part of the grant allotted by Government (₹400) is spent on religious ceremonies, leaving very little for feeding, and that the present offer might well be accepted with thanks on certain conditions.

In such circumstances, the prayer of Srikantia may be granted, subject to the following reservations:-

1) That Singri Nanjappa be allowed to perform one day's Santarpane.
2) That should the Palace desire to conduct Santarpane on all or any of the other days, Srikantia should raise no objection.

To ensure the satisfactory performance of his promise, Srikantia may, as suggested by the Muzrai Secretary, be requested to deposit a sum of ₹ 1000/- till he creates a permanent endowment.

The proposals of the Muzrai Secretary are concurred in by the Second Councillor, and may be approved.
